THE COURT HOUSE CHIEF.

A Revelation of How and What, Where from, and Why—A Transcendental Report.

From Justice to Superior.

What has become of the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals? The answer is that he has been removed from office. The removal was the result of a vote of the judges of the court, which was taken on the basis of a report of the Chief Justice's conduct. The report was that the Chief Justice had been acting in an improper manner, and that he had been using his position for his own benefit. The judges of the court decided that the Chief Justice should be removed from office, and they voted to do so. The removal was a surprise to many people, and it has caused a great deal of discussion in the city.
